Information about London Friend

London Friend works to promote the health and well-being of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) people. We do this by providing services that support individual LGBT people directly; by engaging LGBT volunteers in the delivery of these services; and also by giving our service users a voice to contribute to the strategic development and inclusion of LGBT people within health and care services.

We are the oldest LGBT charity in the UK, set up in 1972.

We want to improve the health and well-being of LGBT people who experience a disproportionately high level of health inequalities compared with the general population. Our services aim to improve health outcomes and allow LGBT people to live more active lives as connected and integrated members of their communities.

We aim to achieve this by providing group and one-to-one support that improves individuals' self-confidence; reduces common mental health issues such as anxiety and depression; improves individuals' engagement in social and physical activities; improves physical health such as reduction in alcohol or drug use, and adherence to HIV medication; and promotes community engagement through volunteering. We also aim to use the experiences of our service users and volunteers to influence improvements in health and care for LGBT people through our strategic partnerships.

We have a small staff team and a large base of around 100 volunteers. We work from our base in Kings Cross and also at satellite and partnership venues around London, including several innovative partnerships with NHS substance misuse and sexual health services. We work strategically with other LGBT organisations, and as a member of the National LGB & T Partnership we are an alliance partner to the Department of Health, NHS England and Public Health England.

London Friend won a GSK IMPACT UK Award in 2016, given to small and medium-sized charities excelling in health and wellbeing. We also won a National Diversity Award in 2014. In 2016 our volunteers were awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service.

London Friend offers generous annual leave entitlement (30 days for full time staff, pro-rata for part-time staff), and makes a 5% employer's contribution to our pension scheme.
